OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY TO THE PRESIDENT

New Delhi, the 10th February 1956

No. 9-Pres./56.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officers of the Tripura Police:—

Names of the officers and ranks—

1. Shri Jackie Lionel Gomes, Reserve Inspector, Tripura Police.
2. Shri Dhan Singh, Havildar, Tripura Police.

Statement of services for which the decorations have been awarded.—On receipt of information on the morning of 28th November, 1955 that a wounded man-eating tiger had badly mauled three villagers in the village of Natunnagar about four miles from the town of Agartala, a police party under Reserve Inspector J. L. Gomes was deputed to locate, and if possible, to destroy it. The police party succeeded in locating the tiger on a small hillock surrounded by paddy fields and in their endeavour to drive it from its hide-out another villager was mauled, the result being that the villagers refused to take part in any further beats. Thereupon Reserve Inspector Gomes requested Police Headquarters for reinforcements of armed police equipped with tear smoke. On the arrival of reinforcements, the Police party encircled half the area of the tiger's hide-out and advanced towards the spot where, it was thought, the tiger was. Tear smoke shells were then used but only brought forth angry growls from the tiger. By this time it had become dark and shouts for assistance disclosed that a couple of Police men had been mauled. The wounded persons were rushed to hospital and the Police party was about to withdraw when Reserve Inspector Gomes and Havildar Dhan Singh heard cries for help. Going forward they found the tiger had attacked Havildar Biswambhar Dutt and was mauling him. Havildar Dhan Singh undauntedly charged the tiger with his rifle and bayonet, which got bent. He then used the butt of his rifle to bludgeon the head of the tiger. Simultaneously Reserve Inspector Gomes emptied six revolver shots into the head of the tiger which rolled over and disappeared in the scrub. Next morning it was traced and killed by the Police party.

Reserve Inspector Gomes and Havildar Dhan Singh displayed great gallantry and courage in going to the aid of their comrade knowing that in doing so they might themselves be attacked.

2. These awards are made for gallantry under rule 4(1) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal for gallantry and consequently carry with them the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.
